Proposals for Supplies.—Mint of the United States, Superintendent's office, Carson City, Nevada, May 13th, 1890. Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned until 12 o'clock (noon), on the 30th day of June 1890, for furnishing such supplies as may be required from time to time by this Mint during the two years ending June 30th, 1891, embracing acids and other chemicals, wax, charcoal, salt, borax, soap, oils, crucibles, covers, stirrers, buckles, cotton cloth, dry goods, metals, hardware and other necessary supplies.

Schedules and blank forms for proposals with information as to the quantity of each article that will probably be required, will be furnished on application. Proposals will be considered separately on each article, and upon comparison of the prices and samples of articles furnished, and will be accepted as to be whole or a part, as may be deemed for the best interest of the government, the right to reject any or all proposals being reserved. An examination will be made on the part of those whose bids may be accepted, and the articles must be furnished as required without delay. Proposals, to receive consideration, must be accompanied by a sufficient bond with one or more sureties, and by samples or such description of the kind and quality of the articles to be addressed to the undersigned and enclosed with a copy of his advertisement in a sealed envelope, on or before "Proposals for supplies." The bids will be opened and registered at the hour named in the presence of the bidders and officers of the Mint.
